

Corvallis School District 509J

SAT Scores and Information

Fall 2007

Nationwide, 1,494,531 students took the SAT, up by 28,787 over the previous year and more students than in any previous graduating class. Oregon is one of 22 states where more than 50% of the students take the exam. Once again, the participation rate of 69% in Corvallis far exceeded state and national averages, and remained at just about the same level as the previous year.

In Oregon, students in the state averaged 522 on the reading portion, 526 on the math portion, and 502 on the writing test. Corvallis School District students averaged 575 in reading, 573 in math, and 551 in writing, well above their state and national peers. However, this was a slight drop from the 580 reading score, 578 math score and 563 writing score recorded in the previous school year. Overall, Crescent Valley students increased their scores on all three tests, while Corvallis High School students dropped in their scores on all three tests.
