

Temperature:

Measures how fast the atoms in any substance are moving.

(We're looking at the vibration of these atoms on an incredibly small scale)

We measure temperature with a thermometer.

Protocol:

1. We should all get water from the same spot — 1 ft away from shore; surface of water
2. Carry the container with two fingers
3. Make temperature measurements within 2 minutes