

Crescent Valley High School Daily Bulletin

Monday, November 23, 2009 (Odd)

Activities/Athletics:

Advisor/Staff Treats

Student Information:

Please remember that only bottles containing water, with screw-top lids, are allowed in the library. If you enjoy this privilege, please leave sports drinks, coffee, soda, etc. on the round table as you enter. Thank you.

Student Council: There is a meeting during lunch today in B7. Advisor reps should bring lunch and hurry over for a 1 p.m. start time. A Corvallis G-T reporter plans to attend.

Seniors--Jostens will be here today and Tuesday, to take graduation orders. Bring your order form and $70 deposit. If you do not order now, the cost of items will increase. Come to the main hall at lunch to turn in your Jostens order form and money. Did you miss the Senior meeting? Pick up a Jostens packet from the main office.

Parks and Recreation basketball: Team registration forms are available in the main office. Pick one up if interested. Registration begins December 1.

SENIORS: REMINDER!! Four school weeks are required for processing college applications which require teacher or counselor recommendations. When you make an appointment, please be certain of your college deadlines.

Leadership drives:

* Winter Clothing Drive through Dec. 7 for Community Outreach

* Canned Food Drive through Dec. 10

* Mr./Mrs. CV Bottle Drive

Operation Smile drawing every day at lunch in the senior hall. Win five free Jamba Juice Smoothies or five candy bars. All proceeds go to needy children. Activity sponsored by CV's Operation Smile Club.

Career Center:

Contact Nancy Pliskin

M,W,H 8:30 a.m. 3:30 p.m.; T 10-3 p.m.; F 8:30-12:30

College Visitation:

Wed. Dec. 2 9:20 Oregon State University (Go Beavers)

Volunteers Needed for Holiday Food Drive: Youth Volunteer Corps of Corvallis is teaming with Linn-Benton Food Share to pass out boxes of turkeys for Food Share families for Thanksgiving tonight from 3:30 – 5:30 p.m. at the Benton County Fairgrounds. Registration forms are available in the CC.

United Nations Pilgrimage Trip: Students who are 16 or 17 years old and have at least one year of high school remaining are eligible to apply for the chance to participate in an all-expenses-paid trip to New York City and the United Nations. Application includes 500-750 word essay and 5-7 minute speech. CV and CHS students who have been selected for this in the past felt the experience was exceptional. Stop by the CC for an application. For more information, contact Brad Probst at 929-2262 or email him at MooseRanch@hotmail.com. Application deadline: is Nov 30.

Volunteers Needed to help with Festival of Lights Concert: Youth Volunteer Corps of Corvallis needs volunteers to help with the Festival of Lights on Tuesday, December 1, at the First Presbyterian Church on 8th and Monroe.

Students can sign up for one or more shifts: set up 4-5 p.m.; greet people, pass out programs and candles 5:30-7:30 p.m.; or, light candles and clean up 8-9 p.m. Snacks will be provided. Registration forms are in the CC.

Oxbridge Academy Info Session: Oxbridge offers summer academic programs in Europe: Oxford, Barcelona, Cambridge, Paris, and Montpellier. Attend an info session on Dec. 1 from 7-9 p.m. at Portland State University, 310 SW Lincoln St., Portland. For more information and to RSVP, call 1-800-828-8349 or info@oxbridgeprograms.com.

Essay contest--Dr Martin Luther King Jr.: "What are you doing for others?" Write a 500 word essay for a chance to win a $1,000 scholarship. Contest is sponsored by the Corvallis Commission for Dr Martin Luther King Jr. Deadline is December 18. Visit the CC for more information.

"Adopt" a child in need this holiday season: The Youth Advisory Board and Jackson Street Youth Shelter hope to grant holiday wishes for things like gloves, scarves and school supplies to youth in need. If any class, club, or advisor group would like to do this, call Mum at Corvallis Parks and Recreation at 766-6467.

GLBT Scholarship: The Gregori Jakovina Endowed Scholarship is open to applicants who are gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender and/or children of GLBT parents. Financial need is a qualification. Deadline: Dec. 31. Visit www.equity-foundation.org for information on this and other scholarships for GLBT students.

Seniors--Univ. of Texas Scholarship: The Eugene McDermott Scholars Program selects 16-20 of the nation's top students. Applications for the 2010 entering class are now being accepted. Apply at www.utdallas.edu/mcdermott by Jan 3.

Gates Millennium Scholarship: This program has now opened its 2010 application process for students who are African American, American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian Pacific Islander American or Hispanic American; permanent resident, national or US citizen; have at minimum 3.3 gpa; will be enrolling for the first time in the fall 2010 at an accredited college or university as a full-time, degree-seeking student; demonstrated leadership abilities through community service or extracurricular or other activities; and meets the Federal Pell Grant eligibility criteria. Students, parents and counselors can register at www.gmsp.org. See Nancy Pliskin for a nomination booklet. Application deadline: January 11.

MS Scholarship—Seniors who have Multiple Sclerosis or who have a parent with MS can apply for scholarships through the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. Most awards are between $1000 and $3000. Application deadline: Jan. 15. Visit national.MSociety.org/scholarship for more information.

Clubs/Organizations:

Contact Sheila Fowler (B5)

CV Girls' Lacrosse: Do you want to play lacrosse? Come to the meeting today during lunch in C4. Meet the coach and learn about the team. It's not necessary to know anything about the sport; come try something new!

This Week's Schedule:

Monday--Odd

Tuesday--Even

Wednesday--All

Thursday--Thanksgiving Holiday (no school)

Friday--No school