

Final Topic Assignment

Honors Research Project 2010-2011

For this assignment, your group is to do the following *(please submit a hardcopy):

1. Obtain three more articles from the Valley Library that will be helpful to your group in determining your final investigation that you actually carry out. YOU SHOULD USE SOMETHING FROM ALL THREE ARTICLES TO DESIGN YOUR INVESTIGATION. To satisfy this assignment, all you need to do is submit to your teacher the proper APA citation for your reference (see the CV Library's web page for instructions for proper citation formats).
 - a) One article should focus upon the specific topic you have finally decided to pursue.
 - b) One article should focus upon some aspect of the methodology (at least one of the steps of your investigation) that you are going to use.
 - c) One article can be of whatever you feel is helpful in arriving at a plan for your investigation.

2. Provide a written statement (paragraph) that summarizes your topic. Your statement should include
 - a) What your research question is.
 - b) How you intend to answer your question (what general procedure will you use).
 - c) How your question is connected to a real and meaningful issue.
