Give us a call or drop us a note, we're here to provide care, support and advocacy along your academic journey.

Wondering about going back to school and finishing that degree you started years ago? Thinking about starting a degree for the first time and not quite sure how to juggle parenting and studies?

OSU's Family Resource Center provides free drop-in short term child care and child care assistance funds for student parents pursuing undergraduate or graduate degrees. And, we offer so much more!

STUDENT PARENTS ARE OUT THERE and you could be one too!
