

HELLO COLLEGE

FREE, PERSONALIZED ADVISING GRADES 9-12

Free High School & College Mentorship

A group of college students, including attendees of Princeton, Vanderbilt, and others, are offering 100% free college and high school peer mentorship for 9th-12th graders. Succeeding in HS & beyond requires a lot of resources not everyone has access to, and it is our goal to promote equity such that every student has an equally vibrant support network to achieve their dreams.

As a network of similarly aged mentors, we will give students our tips and tricks to putting them in the best light for scholarships, wisely spending their summers, leveraging extracurriculars as a facet to discovering their passions, and bringing years of hard work into one cohesive and impressive application package. We want to ensure everyone has a great chance of affording and attending their dream college.

Hello College Mentors are all current or former Crescent Valley students and have attended or been accepted to: Princeton University, Vanderbilt University, OSU Honors College, and more!
