

Directions for Using This Document: Please review the name suggestions for all schools/facilities and select which of condition criteria are addressed. If it meets no criteria, please select the "Does not Meet Any Criteria" option.

Conditions Criteria: Includes Required Resolution components & Task Force Input

- C1: School name should inspire children and the community
- C2: Name reflects social justice commitment to intentionally disrupting racism, genderism, ableism & other socially unjust biases (person, place, thing). Additional weight in recommendation should be given to figures who valued and worked for social justice in their lives.
- C3: Women who have made inspirational contributions during their lives should be given additional weight in recommendations to remedy the lack of representation among current school names*
- C4: At least one school in Corvallis should have a name that honors the local indigenous people (person, place, thing)
- C5: At least one school in Corvallis should have a name that honors the community's connection to place
- C6: Those that intentionally perpetuated white dominance (i.e. slave holders, racist and/or anti-Indigenous views, etc.) will not be considered*

*Additional Weight

Recommended Suggestions for Name Replacement(s)

(From public input received through 10-22-20)

Current Name	Name Suggestions	C1	C2	C3	C4	C5	C6	Does not Meet Any Criteria
Adams Elementary	Dunawi Elementary or Dunawi Creek Elementary, since the creek runs through the property. (Make sure the mascot does not get converted to "dragons" to be alliterative, since that name evokes the history of the ku klux klan in Oregon and elsewhere.)
Dixie School	Daisy School. Daisy Bates was an African American civil rights activist, and [current] name sounds similar to old name. Dixie = confederate war song
Husky (Hoover)	Aspen
	Aspen
	Dixon Creek Elementary
	Fircrest
	Foothill
	Forest
	Husky Elementary

Current Name	Name Suggestions	C1	C2	C3	C4	C5	C6	Does not Meet Any Criteria
	Susan Troxel Hoover (created Hoover vacuum company)
	Theresa Hoover (African-American woman who was a mentor and executive for the United Methodist Church)
	Thomas Wogaman Elementary School
	Timberhill Elementary
	Timberview
	Tubman (after Harriet Tubman)
	Walnut Elementary
	Woodland
Jaguar (Jefferson)	Birchwood
	Cloverland
	Creekside (for its proximity to Dixon Creek)
	Dixon Creek
	Ginsburg Elementary
	Jaguar Elementary
	Margo Lillian Jefferson (African-American Pulitzer Prize winner)
	Ruth Bader Ginsburg Elementary
	Sotomayor (after Sonia Sotomayor)
	Sunrise
Wildcat (Wilson)	Alan Turing
	Carson (after Letitia Carson)
	Conifer
	Hillside
	Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
	John Lewis Elementary School
	Medicine Hill
	North Highland
	Russell Wilson (Seattle Seahawks quarterback)
	Satinwood
	Sunnyside (after former school at 9th and Elks)
	Ulrica Wilson (African-American mathematician and Presidential Award recipient)
	Wildcat Elementary

Current Name	Name Suggestions	C1	C2	C3	C4	C5	C6	Does not Meet Any Criteria
	Willamette Elementary
Any School	Albright (Madeline Albright rose from immigrant to first female Secretary of State.)
	Alder (after an Oregon tree)
	Ame Elementary (after a slave owned by a Corvallis family)
	Amelia Earhart
	Barbara Roberts
	Beatrice Morrow Cannady
	Beaver Elementary
	Beverly Cleary (Oregon historical and literary figure)
	Big Leaf Elementary
	Camas Elementary (after a native plant)
	Carl E. Wieman (graduated from Corvallis High School and in 2001 was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics)
	Cascade Ridge Elementary
	Checkermallow Elementary (after a native plant)
	Cornelia Marvin Pierce (pioneered the library system)
	Creekside Elementary
	Damian Lillard*
	Discovery
	Douglas (after an Oregon tree)
	Edith Green (Oregon congresswoman who championed women's rights, and educational and social reform)
	Edith Green
	Eleanor Roosevelt
	Esther Pohl Lovejoy
	Frederick Douglass
	Gert Boyle
	Gorman Elementary (after Hannah and Eliza Gorman)
	Harriet Tubman
	Hope
	Huckleberry
Kang Sheng
Kathryn Harrison
Ken Griffey, Jr. ****
Kinnickinnick Elementary (after a native plant)

Current Name	Name Suggestions	C1	C2	C3	C4	C5	C6	Does not Meet Any Criteria
	Letitia Carson (after the African American pioneer)
	Lola Greene Baldwin (activist; first female police officer in the US and worked for Portland Police Department).
	Love
	Lupine (after an Oregon flower)
	Major General Jeanne Holme
	Manzanita Elementary (after a native plant)
	Margaret Carter
	Mark Hatfield (Oregon historical and literary figure)
	Martin Luther King Jr.
	Mary Holmes Shipley
	Mary McLeod Bethune (daughter of former slaves; pioneer in ensuring African-American women received an education)
	Mary Tape
	Maurine Neuberger
	Meadow Elementary
	Meadowlark Elementary
	Mercedes Deiz (first Black female lawyer and judge in Oregon)
	Michelle Obama
	Nellie Bly
	Nie Yuanzi
	Noble (after an Oregon tree)
	Norma Paulus
	Oak Elementary
	Obama
	Peter DeFazio
	Pine Elementary
	Pine Grove Elementary
	Prairie
	Reuben Shipley
	Rivers Edge Elementary
	Robert Kennedy
	Roosevelt (after FDR)
	Rosa Parks Elementary
	Ruby Bridges Elementary

Current Name	Name Suggestions	C1	C2	C3	C4	C5	C6	Does not Meet Any Criteria
	Salal Elementary (after a native plant)
	Sarah Winnemucca (Native American teacher and activist from Oregon)
	Shirley Chisholm
	Siletz Elementary ("Siletz" translates into "coiled like a snake," describing the route of the river winding around the land and mountains to the ocean.")
	Sojourner Truth
	Spruce Elementary
	Tan Houlan
	Tom McCall (Oregon historical and literary figure)
	Trillium (after an Oregon flower)
	Unify
	Ursula LeGuin (Oregon historical and literary figure)
	Walnut Elementary
	Wayne Morse (Oregon historical and literary figure)
	Willamette Elementary
	William O. Douglas (Oregon historical and literary figure)
	Zhang Chengzgi

Dixie is a school building the Corvallis School District owns, but it is only used for early childhood special education, which is run by the Linn Benton Lincoln Education Service District.

This name was submitted as part of a list, which included this note: "This [list] includes women of color; two black women and an indigenous women, and Oregon's first woman physician, first woman governor, first woman Secretary of State, first female general in the US Air Force, the first black woman elected to the Oregon House of Representatives and Senate, first (and only) woman US Senator, the long time CEO of Columbia Sportswear, and the legislator who was the creator of Title IX."

*This name was submitted with the note: "... both Griffey and Lillard are more than inspiring athletes. They both exemplify an unparalleled dedication to personal improvement and teamwork, values we wish to inculcate in our children"