

Qualitative Assessment

Defining "CORE VALUE"-based Assessment Metrics

Inclusive Learning Environments:

- Natural Day Lighting
- Adjustable Lighting
- Operable Windows
- Colorful Interiors
- Culturally Representative
- Appropriate Acoustics

CORVALLIS SCHOOL DISTRICT – FACILITY PLANNING WORKSHOP

CORE VALUE based Assessment Metrics

Real-World Experiential Learning:

- Classroom Accommodating Active Learning
- Ability to Work in Small Groups
- Presentation Areas
- Adequately Equipped Classrooms
- Opportunities for Student Exhibition
- School Gardens
- Outdoor Learning

CORVALLIS SCHOOL DISTRICT – FACILITY PLANNING WORKSHOP

CORE VALUE based Assessment Metrics

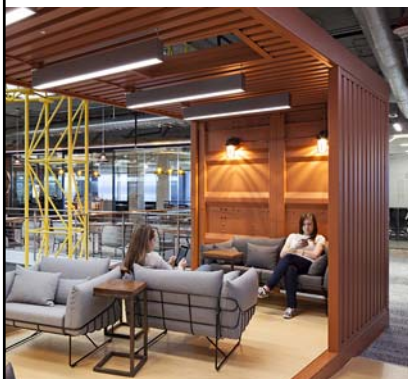

Adaptability is Critical to Our Success:

- Moveable Furniture
- Age Appropriate Furniture
- Ability to Team Teach
- Flexible Spaces that Accommodate Movement
- Ample Electrical/Power Supply
- Robust Technology
- Sinks in All Classrooms
- Adequately Sized Site for School
- Expandable Building Footprint/Reconfigure

CORE VALUE based Assessment Metrics

Relationships Build Communities of Trust and Respect:

- All School Gathering
- Warm & Welcoming Spaces
- Accessible & All-Weather Playgrounds
- Covered Outdoor Spaces
- Visible Learning
- Informal Learning, Socialization Areas

CORE VALUE based Assessment Metrics

Community Connections Support Learning

- Appropriate Location of Community Services
- Displays & Resources Connections
- Ability to Zone Building for After-Hours Use
- Appropriate Health Center Location
- Accommodations for Extended Day Programs
- Ability to Secure Building Zones

ADDITIONAL Assessment Metrics

Safety & Security

- Good Site Lines to Building Approach
- Secured Front Entry
- Good Interior Site Line
- Areas of Refuge Within Classroom
- Panic Alarm, Connection to Police, Intercom
- Good Restroom Supervision (sinks, acoustics)
- Surveillance Equipment

Site Functionality

- Separation of Buses, Parents and Students
- Adequate Parking for Students, Staff, Visitors
- Adequate Event Parking
- Adequate Physical Education Fields
- Nearby Off-Site Amenities